

HUNTED BY LAW, MAN SURRENDERS HIMSELF

Oscar Addington, Charged With Murder, Knew Could Not Escape Gives Up to Sheriff.

KILLED RETURNED SOLDIER?

Three Are Now Charged With Beating John P. Linn to Death With Fences Hall, Robbed Him.

Walking unattended into the sheriff's office yesterday morning Oscar Addington, on whose head a reward of $100 had been placed as the slayer of John P. Linn, hastened to death with a fence post near Huron's home on the night of August 1, gave himself up to the sheriff for trial on the charge. Addington entered a plea of not guilty at his arraignment before Justice H. J. Gray yesterday afternoon and was committed to jail without bond for preliminary hearing Nov. 7. At that time the preliminary hearing of Ray Jones and Jim Whipple also charged with the crime will be held.

At 11 a. m. a returned soldier, unperceived unobserved by a blow on the head inflicted by one of his men with which he was armed two hours before the tragedy, one of the four after Linn had been knocked senseless attempted to place the body in a passing automobile, but the other three refused to allow this necessity and the unconscious form was carried on the running board of the car in possession of one of the men and driven to a point south of Hickory. There the man, one of the men last found in death with a plan and left the body in the side of the road where it was found next morning.

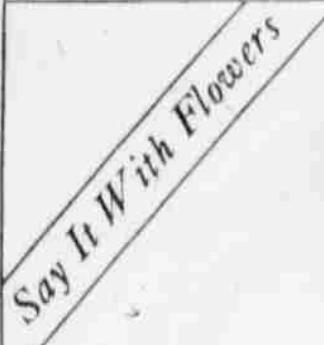

Whipple and Shaw were arrested several days later and after entering pleas of not guilty before Justice H. J. Gray were committed on bonds of $100 each for preliminary hearing. The hearing was indefinitely postponed pending the apprehension of Addington. N. H. Lanches, master of Addington's home in Fairview two weeks after the commission of the crime arrived at the defendant's home only a few minutes after Addington had been taken into custody, told Sheriff Woolley yesterday that he gave up because he was tired of dodging the police officers of every state he entered and that he would rather return and be tried for the offense than to be a fugitive from justice.

ROTARIANS TALK ON SCHOOL CONDITIONS

Nothing So Cheap as Cheap Education Is Warning Given by Delegates to Annual Meeting of the World's Rotarians.

"Candy Kid," the most diminutive dog in the world, was the feature of the monthly meeting of the Rotary club yesterday. G. W. Abbott, owner of the animal, declared that no dog won more prizes or championships than his little Candy in America.

Jack Thompson took the platform yesterday to tell of progress being made in the school system of the country.

A few minutes later Mr. Thompson, a big boy—was introduced.

He was the star attraction of the show, having won more prizes than Candy in America.

Nothing so cheap as cheap education.

The speaker said, "I am glad to see that the school system of the country is growing.

The speaker, Representative of Detroit State, was called upon by Peter Thompson chairman of the meeting to speak on the question of education in the city with a baptism of numerous stories and illustrations. Mr. Clegg in reply with a smile added another glowing opportunity in the opportunity in the opportunity.

Meet on Thursday.

The Rotary Club's

meeting room is open to all at the price of 50 cents.

They are now

inviting people to come and

LAXATIVE for Aged People

The bane of old age is constipation. The bowels become weak and unable to perform their functions without aid. For this purpose only the mildest and gentlest laxative should be used. The use of harsh cathartics aggravates the trouble and makes the constipation worse. Chamberlain's Tablets are a favorite with people of middle age and older on account of their gentle action.
